Your Membership Makes a Difference!

Financial support and volunteer energy from Friends' members help make possible:

- A year-round slate of workshops, lectures, festivals, and the Spring plant sale
- Outreach efforts, including docent and volunteer programs and participation in community events
- Scholarships for students in apprenticeship programs and agroecology class offerings
- Farm and Garden improvements, including new structures, equipment, and visitor facilities

Friends of the Farm & Garden annual membership provides the following standard benefits –

- Discounted registration fees for workshops & events
- Early entry to the Spring Plant Sale and 10% off plant purchases
- 10% discount on purchases from San Lorenzo Garden Center, and the Garden Company in Santa Cruz (plants only) and Sierra Azul Nursery & Gardens in Watsonville
- Invitation to the annual membership reception, which includes food and entertainment
- Monthly subscription to the Center for Agroecology email newsletter with Farm & Garden news and upcoming events and workshop
